

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

HENRY JAMES,

CASE NO. C22-0336JLR

Plaintiff,

ORDER

V.

FPI MANAGEMENT, INC., et al.,

Defendants.

On May 11, 2022, the court entered an order dismissing Plaintiff Henry James's plaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B) because he failed to state a cognizable claim for relief. (5/11/22 Order (Dkt. # 10).) The court dismissed his claims against the al Defendants<sup>1</sup> and his Fifth and Eighth Amendment Section 1983 official and

1 individual capacity claims against the FPI,<sup>2</sup> Seattle,<sup>3</sup> and King County<sup>4</sup> Defendants with 2 prejudice and without leave to amend. (Id. at 19-20.) The court further dismissed his
 3 First, Fourth, and Fourteenth Amendment Section 1983 official and individual capacity
 4 claims against the FPI, Seattle, and King County Defendants without prejudice and with 5 leave to amend. (Id.) The court granted Mr. James 14 days following the date of that 6 order to “file an amended complaint as to the First, Fourth, and Fourteenth Amendment
 7 official and individual capacity claims against the FPI, Seattle, and King County
 8 Defendants” that corrected the deficiencies noted in the court’s May 11, 2022 order. (Id.)
 9 The court warned Mr. James that failure to timely comply with the court’s May 11, 2022
 10 order would result in dismissal of his remaining claims “with prejudice and without leave 11 to amend.” (Id. at 20.) More than 14 days have passed since the court filed its order of 12 dismissal, and Mr. James has failed to file an amended complaint or any other submission 13 in response to the court’s May 11, 2022 order. (See generally Dkt.) Accordingly, the 14 court DISMISSES his complaint (Dkts. ## 8, 8-1) WITH PREJUDICE. The Clerk is 15 DIRECTED to send a copy of this order to Mr. James and to close this case.
